■ Motonosumi-Inari Jinjya Shrine

Motonosumi-Inari Jinjya Shrine is a branch shrine of Taikodani Inari Shrine located in Tsuwano Town, Shimane Prefecture in 1955 following a divine revelation from the white fox. With a tunnel of 123 red Torii gates stretching from the bluff to the ocean. The shrine will make your trip unforgettable. A donation box placed on top of the Torii gate is known as the most challenging to throw money into. Your wish will be granted if you throw your money into the box just one.

■ Omijima Island

Omijima Island boasts about 40 kilometer of breathtaking coastline with sheer cliffs, caves, and multitudes of oddly shaped rocks like monoliths created by the wild waves, located in the middle of the Kita Nagato Coast National Park. It is also known as "Sea Alps" . There are excursion boat rides allowing visitors to indulge in the beautiful view of nature's creations from sea. Omijima Island is also the diving spot of Japan's leading.

■ Higashiushirobata Tanada

Terraced rice fields in Higashi Ushirobata of the Yuya area spread across the hills of the peninsula approaching the shore, which is unique among fields generally seen in the mountain areas. With the scenery of terraced rice fields overlooking the Sea of Japan, the area was selected as one of "The best 100 terraced rice fields in Japan" in 1999 by the Farm Ministry/ The spectacular views of fields against a background of the sea isaribi, fishing fire or the dazzling sunset keep photographs spellbound.

■ Senjyojiki

Senjyojiki is grassland extending over the hill which stands 333 meters in height as high as Tokyo Tower, with islands in the Sea of Japan below. The 360-degree panoramic view of the blue sky is a view you do not want to miss along with the sound of the waves.
